

Devonshire House

Feb 24. 1859

My Dear Sir

I have just arrived in London, and shall be here till Saturday morning. I have taken out of the library the Volume which contains the Hamlet of 1604 and it now awaits your directions as to whether it is to be sent. If you are able to answer by return of post, I can give directions respecting it before I leave. If I do not hear from you, I shall place the Volume in Mr Currey's hands, & if you will be so good as to communicate your wishes to him he will either forward it to you or deliver it to the lithographer. With respect to money matters, I shall depend on your letting me know when a cheque is required.

Yours very truly
Downshire

